II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☐ Federal question

☒ Diversity of citizenship

the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

25 million because this has been an ongoing situation that resulted into my daughter being with someone who was not her father and kicked out.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

1. Feb 23 2023 and around there were several filings against me and my daughters father leading to my ex asking for temporary custody of her and her baby. At the time there was also a DSS case against my ex for sexual assault of my daughter and yet he still was granted custody of her. He lied to the courts about everything and I then emailed Judge McTheris explaining the situation and to see if her ruling could be overturned.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

The total amount I'm asking for is 25 million due to the fact my daughter, granddaughter as well as myself has suffer horrifically from this situation. No one cared enough to help vs. my daughter ended up on the street by the end of 2023 due to this incident. I would never want to see this happen to another child.

Instead nothing happened as far as the case being overturned and DSS dropped my case because they could not go against the state. He intentionally put all the wrong information down pertaining to me. wrong address, misspelling of my name and etc. Doug Linn was also no help, when I finally went to court for a restraining order he refused to discuss any of what was email pertaining to the situation. Still til this very day its showing that he has custody of her.
